

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING A MINIMUM OF SIXTEEN (16) HOURS OF LCSW SUPERVISION TRAINING THROUGH A COMBINATION OF ONLINE COURSES AND THE WRITTEN LCSW SUPERVISOR TEST TO BECOME A BOARD APPROVED LCSW SUPERVISOR

The rules and regulations require that certification as a Board approved LCSW Supervisor requires the following: 1) LCSW with a minimum of two years of verifiable practice at the LCSW level and; 2) completion of a Board approved supervision course for a minimum of sixteen (16) hours. After the initial approval, each supervisor must submit two hours of board approved supervision continuing education with the renewal of their license.

First and foremost, all supervision training must be approved by the Board of Examiners for Social Workers and Marriage and Family Therapists (Board). The Board is allowing LCSW to obtain sixteen hours of supervision training through two (2) methods: a.) Fifteen hours of LCSW supervision training can be obtained online through the Zur Institute. Those hours in combination with two (2) hours of continuing education credit you may receive from the completion of the LCSW Supervisor Test. or b.) Approved continuing education or designated providers can now provide sixteen (16) hours of LCSW supervision training.

Instructions

1. An LCSW can go to the following link: <http://www.zurinstitute.com/supervision15course.html> and purchase fifteen (15) hours of LCSW supervision. Upon completion of the courses, please maintain all certificates of completion for documentation.
2. The LCSW Supervisor Test can be downloaded from the Board's website under the forms section.
3. Complete the test and mail it to the Board's address listed on the test form with a $25.00 money order or cashier's check. The test will be scored and the result will be emailed
4. If you have two years of practice at the LCSW level, upon completion of the fifteen hour supervision training and the supervisor test, you may apply to be a board approved LCSW Supervisor.
